GAZELLE TO COURT DRESS.

KEENE FILLY TURNS THE TABLES ON YANKEE GIRL AT GRAVESEND.

Wexford Wins in a Canter After Being Heavily Backed-Jockey McInerney Is Injured in the Steeplechase

New York, June 12 .- Court Dress reversed the re cent running of the Ladies Stake at Belmont Parl when she defeated Yankee Girl at Gravesend this afternoon in the Gazelle Stakes at one mile and a sixteenth. Court Dress was always the favorite with 4 to 5 the closing price, though Yankee Girl had a following that resulted in her being backed from a high quotation of 2 to 1 to 8 to 5. In the running it was Court Dress all the way. There was not enough early speed to make her extend After taking her into the lead at the rise of the barrier, Martin merely rated her in front to win by a length and a half. Yankee Girl stood a long drive gamely and as easily disposed of Estimate, while Adoration, the only other starter, was beaten off. The race was run in 1:47t, which is a record for the stake, the best previous time being Flip Flap's 1:48.

Previous winners of the Gazelle Stakes, first cum in 1887, have been: 1887, Firenze; 1888, Winona; 1889, Gipsy Queen; 1890, Amazon; 1891, Ambulance; 1892, Yorkville Belle; 1893, Naptha; 1894, Nahma; 1895, The Butterflies; 1896, Intermission; 1897, Casseopla; 1898, Geisha; 1899, The Rose; 1900. Indian Fairy; 1901, Trigger; 1902, Blue Girl; 1903, Stolen Moments; 1904, Beldame; 1905, Tradition; 1906, Flip Flap.

The sensation of the day came out of the mile and an eighth handicap when Wexford romped in front of his opponents all the way and won an common canter, six lengths better than Zambesi. He ran the distance in 1:52%, which was within two-fifths of a second of the track record, and he was at no time really urged by Shilling, who had the mount. His good race was anticipated by R. L. Thomas, his owner, and one of the most successful coups of the season was consummated. As good as 20 to 1 at one stage, he was backed down to a closing of 31 to 1, and Mr. Thomas is reported to have won something like $35,000 from the ring. On May 31 Wexford started in a mile and a sixteenth handicap and at the finish he was a beater The excuse was made that in that running he and Dan Buhre came into a collision on the Zambesi was the favorite, but he at no time threatened Wexford.

The Thomas colors were seen in front again later in the day when his Ben Brush colt Harcourt beat a field of maidens handily. Harcourt was at a good price in the market and the stable connections added a goodly sum to the Wexford winnings Wexford is in the Suburban Handicap under 100 pounds and his race today was amply good enough to qualify him for that running. He was ridden or to a mile and a half, but his time for the extra distance was not caught by anyone in the press stand.

In the selling steeplechase Tom Cogan was re turned the winner. Dours one of the choices fell at the first fence. Oro came to grief at the second and D'Arkle ran out at the Liverpool. McInerney, who had the mount on Douro, had a hard fall when the horse went down. He was removed to the hor pital suffering from internal injuries.

There was an unfortunate start in the fifth race. Shot Gun, one of the probable contenders, was practically left and Heine, another that had been freely tipped, was bumped with such force that Troxler,

J. LEE KEEPS UP HIS WINNING FORM. Home in Front on Four-D. Austin Is Fined $50 for Rough Riding.

Cincinnati, O., June 12.—Bad weather and a oor card cut down the attendance at Latonia this afternoon. The track was in the worst condition has been in for years. Jockey J. In the feature race, the handicap at seven-eighths of a mile, Lee rode Finvoy interference with which the horse m had much to do with his failure to finish better D. Austin, on Lexoline, was held mostly to blame for the interference and was fined $50 for his rough riding. V. Powers, on Rickley, got off with a lecture for the part he played in Harry Scott, showing improved form and well backed at a long price, took the purse in a hard drive to wear down Lexoline. betting on Pasadena had a queer look, and the judges cautioned D. Boland, while he was on his to the post, to do his best. Pasadena would sharp contender under intelligent handling. The state of the track can best be judged by the time made in this race, 1:35 for seven fur-najority of the bookmakers, however, had the worst of the speculative argument, as all of Lee's mounts were liberally supported.

Dr. Spruill in the closing race was the longestpriced winner. Lee secured an advantage at the start which the others could not overcome, although Matador made a game effort throughout to wear him down.

Considerable pressure is being brought to bear for the reinstatement of Jockey Dearborn. Judge Price says he will not modify his ruling.

W. J. Young will ship his entire string, including The Abbot, winner of the Latonia Derby, to Buffalo tonight. The Abbot will be a starter in the Buffalo Derby next Saturday. Mr. Young made an effort to secure J. Lee as The Abbot's pilot, but a prior engagement will keep the colored rider here. J. Gildersleeve's horses also go to Buffalo tonight.

Jockey D. Boland left for Windsor this evening Bookmaker James Davis has gone to Denver. He will book at the Overland Park meeting. George McRoberts also intends to book at Denver and will leave tomorrow

CLOSE FINISHES AT BLUE BONNETS

Preen Wins From Pantoufle by a Head-Cur sus a Nose in Front of Water Dog.

Montreal, Quebec, June 12 .- A well balanced care produced stirring contests at Blue Bonnets afternoon. Close finishes were in order and in ; majority of the races the winners were in doubt until in the last few strides. In the first and fourth races it was impossible to tell which had won un til the official placing had been displayed. I would not have been surprising to many of thos in the grandstand had a dead heat been declared in each of these races. There was another large crowd present.

Favorites and outsiders divided honors this after the successful choices being Preen, Paprika and Oroba. Preen's victory marked the first winner that trainer Albert Weston has sent to the post during the meeting. He had started in ten races and, although every one of his horses had finished Preen's inside the money, none had won, racing through the mud has evidently dulled his speed, for it took all there was in him to beat Pantoufle out a head in 1:14. When at his best this excellent sprinter is capable of running much faster.

In the fourth race Cursus won from Water Dog by a matter of inches. Water Dog was favorite in this race and well backed. As usual, he broke slowly and was outrun for the first three furlongs the far turn he moved up and when entering On the homestretch it seemed he would win. peared to have the others beaten at the sixteenth post, but Cursus, which had trailed along in the rear until straightened out for the final drive, finished with a great burst of speed at the end and managed to get up in the very last stride. St. Noel, which had set all the early pace was third, a length and a half away

Monkey Puzzle was scratched out of the fourth race and started in the last one and heavily backed by his owner and others. The colt proved a big disappointment. He broke slowly and was outrus until well into the homestretch, where he came fast and passed all but Dog Rose, which won easily by a length and a half.

The Seagram colt Main Chance, was sent a and a quarter after the races yesterday in 2:13. This was his final "prep" for the Buffalo Derby to be run Saturday next, and he was shipped to Kenil-worth this morning. T. E. Mannix left for Brookline tonight where his horses Gallant and Oriflamme were shipped yesterday.

FIVE IN A ROW FOR JOHNNIE BL

La Pucelle Makes Scarfell Stretch Himself-Three Finish Noses Apart.

Hamilton, Ont., June 12 .- There was some rattling good sport here today. In three of the races the finishes were most exciting, and to add to the pleasure of this, four favorites won. One of these however brought the public little profit. Johnnie Blake was so near a certainty that he was opened at 1 to 6. There was nothing coming at this and some of the books took a feeler at 1 to 5. They were satisfied quickly, for a few of the smart set fancied the chance to pick up the day's expenses and Cook's colt went to the ost at 1 to 7. It was simply a canter for him. He could have won the race by a dozen or more lengths had Nicol been of a mind to let him out This marked his fifth successive win out of six starts. He is unquestionably the best two-year-old that has been shown in Canada this year.

The feature race was the handicap coming third on the card, but the withdrawal of Charlie Eastcaused interest to wane until Scarfell, La Pucelle and Temmeraire got to running. people who had backed Scarfell liberally had their hearts in their mouths when La Pucelle came with a rush through the stretch. She was gaining on the Mosby horse at every stride, and he was out to the last ounce to stall her off and beat her by a neck. Had the race been ten yards further the mare would have won.

The most exciting race of the day was the fifth. Dutch Pete, Blacklock and Alvise finished noses apart. Dutch Pete was practically left at the post and was compelled to take the overland route He gradually wore down the leaders, Alvise and Blacklock, and at the end the trio went under the wire on what seemed even terms, the judges being only in a position to separate them.

Bon Mot in the last race delayed the start for ten minutes, and as the barrier went up bolted into the fence and was left. Harmakis after repeated efforts imally made good and in a driving finish took the race from Matabon, Little Boot, with 100 to 1 against his chances, finishing third.

WHITNEY BUYS WOODLAWN FARM.

Lexington, Ky., June 12 .- George H. Whitney has taken possession of the Woodlawn Farm, and when he has completed improvements in the way of new barns and fences, will take the stallions and mares of the Melrose Stud to their new home. The stallions are Farandole and St. Maxim. future Mr. Whitney's horses will be trained at Woodlawn and his yearlings developed there. The farm has on it probably the finest mile training track in all Kentucky. The course is thouroughly graded so that in rainy weather the water is at once carried off and it is in as good shape for use in winter as it is in the warmer weather. Wood-lawn is ideal in location, being not over twenty minutes' drive from the heart of the city, and it lies alongside of H. P. Headley's Beaumont Farm. Further down the same road is located the Mill-stream Stud of Miller, Bishop & Painter, the present home of the great son of Hanover, Handspring, and the French horse, Adam.

Winner—B. c, by What-er-lou—Signora (trained by J. E. Totton).

Went to post at 4:00. At post 4 minutes. Start fair. Won driving: second and third the same.

Harry Scott was caught in a jam soon after the start when Lexoline cut across in front and was shuffled back to last place, then closed a big gap steadily and, saving much ground when turning into the stretch finished with a rush and got up in the final strides. Lexoline was responsible for much jamming and repeatedly interfered with Envoy in the stretch, but finished gamely and was a lucky second. Envoy. away in a tangle and suffering from much interference, ran a good race and, with clear sailing, would have won. Rickey ran fairly well. Pasadena was poorly handled and can do much better. Dainty Dame also suffered from interference and ram far below her best form.

MORE HORSES FOR WINDSOR.

Detroit, Mich., June 12 .- There is now no que tion as to a sufficiency of horses for the spring meeting at Windsor. In addition to the more than 300 horses already quartered at the course the special train from Louisville brought about 150 head numbering the following stables: Guthrie & Allen, 12; Press West, 8; William Brien, 8; William Frey, 4; E. Fitzgerald, 4; Oots Bros., 8; J. H. Ford, 6; J. Brown, 4; William Pemberton, 2; J. H. Baker, 6; W. R. Sallee, 4; John Brannon, 2; W. H. Robinson, 8; James Davis, 3; A. B. Campbell, 4; L. Peters, 2; H. J. Harris, 4; H. Schufelton, 1; B. Stickney, 3; F. Risk, 4; John Troxler, 3; J. O. Gray, 6; T. E. Crist, 4; J. M. Henry, 6; Greenwood & Co., 3; G. C. Bennett, 15.

From the number of applications which are com-ing in at the office of the club it looks as though most everybody at Hamilton intends shipping to Windsor. Some will come over today and tomorrow while others may wait until the end of the meet ing. Those who have made applications for stall room are: E. Trotter, 15; P. Gallagher, 7; N. K. Beal, 4; C. H. Williams, 3; G. B. Moreland, 3; J. Clay, 8; E. S. Gardner, 6; A. L. Poole, 5; J. Dayton, 5; William Gerst, 12; R. J. Levy, 6; R. D. Williams, 16; Joseph McLennan, 4; James Healy 6; G. H. Neal, 2; John Nixon, 11; B. C. Evans, 11 Pangritz, 6; W. Shields, 3; G. F. Richings, 2.

Montreal will send many horses here. Allie Gates has asked for stalls for ten and he usually has lot that can race well. On the same train with him will come five belonging to Charles Phair, five W. A. Burttschell's, five of J. C. Harris', four of Paul Miles' and four of George W. Innes'.

FIRESTONE IS READY TO RACE.

New York, June 12 .- Firestone, the star two year-old in the stable of President Thomas H. Williams of the New California Jockey Club, which arrived from Oakland last week in charge of Dr. H. E. Rowell, has had his first gallop at Sheeps head Bay, and he shows no ill effects from his trip across the continent. "Firestone shipped in splendid condition. In fact, I never saw a two-year-old ship better," said Dr. Rowell to-day. "He was like a seasoned traveler, eating regularly, and being provided with a box all to himself, spent most of the time lying down. He is in good condition that I may conclude to give him an outing before the Gravesend meeting closes."

If he does not start at Gravesend it is probable that Firestone will make his eastern debut in the Double Event which will be one of the features of the card for the opening of the Sheepshead Bay meeting June 20.

CLAY WANTS TO BUY THE DINNER.

New York, June 12.-Flower Queen, the filly that bore the colors of Woodford Clay in the last race at Gravesend Monday, is one of his nominations for the Astoria Stakes, to be run Monday next. She is a chestnut daughter of Nasturtium and Grie

Last fall Kentucky Beau won the Waldorf Stakes in the colors of Mr. Clay, and he is particularly ambitious to annex the dinner stake of the Brooklyn Jockey Club this spring. His other nomination for the Astoria is Winning Star, a chestnut daughter of Star Shoot and Winsome III., though it is probable that Flower Queen will be the one to carry the silks.

KNAPP STILL HAS HIS LICENSE.

There is nothing in the story published in one of the local newspapers yesterday afternoon to the effect that the license of Jockey W. Knapp had been revoked at Gravesend. He was, however, had been revoked at Gravesend. suspended for the meeting at Montreal after riding Cock Sure and Gilpin at Blue Bonnets June 5. In response to an inquiry by Daily Racing Form's New York correspondent last night, Assistant Secretary Daingerfield of the Jockey Club said; "Jockey Knapp is in good standing here."

SEATTLE TO OPEN JUNE 29.

Oakland, Cal., June 12 .- The Seattle meeting of approximately 100 days is scheduled to open on Saturday, June 29. Horace Egbert, who will act as presiding judge and steward, will leave here immediately after the close of the local meeting, June Arthur McKnight will do the starting. than 500 horses from here will participate in the racing at Seattle.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Jockey Garner is at his home in Iowa nursing a broken hand. J. W. Colt has secured second call on the services of Steeplechase Jockey Owens. First call belongs to Gwyn Tompkins.

The eastern work-watchers are certain that John Madden is pointing Dandelion for the Suburban, and are in love with his recent work.

The meeting of the Brookline Hunt Club at Brookline, Mass., will begin to day. There will be three days' racing—today, Saturday and Monday.

Among the yearlings to be sold in the lot from

Robert L. Thomas, a rich Kentuckian, who re-ntly returned to the racing game, has married Washington girl and threatens to sell his horses d retire.

Paul J. Rainey is threatening to suspend Jockey dtke if that young man does not curtail his sits to Broadway and Coney Island and live a tional life.

Ida D., the bay filly by His Highness—Carrie C., hich is carded to start for the first time in e sixth race at Gravesend today, is a full sister of Jean Bereaud. David Gideon, whose colors she ill carry, bred her.

Bull's Eye has been a very unlucky horse. Be-ming his racing career as Sandy Dingwall, and ter as Sandy D., the change of name accom-lished no real good. As Bull's Eye he broke down ist season, and last Tuesday at Gravesend, his ally start in 1907, he bled.

The reason why Tangle did not go in Tuesday's tandard Stakes was that while at exercise at heepshead Bay Monday afternoon she threw her tercise boy and took a three or four mile romp a the roads. A policeman caught and arrested or far from the race track.

Irish enthusiasm runs toward the presentation of the freedom of the City of Dublin to Richard roker, because of Orby's Derby win. In the teantime Orby has been scratched from the Ascotoyal Hunt Cup list. The weight assigned the lit, 127 pounds, or, as the English have it, 9 stone pound, is unprecedented for a three-year-old.

J. H. A., Chicago, Ill. The odds against Sir Beyss when he won the Epsom Derby in 1879 were 20 to 1. The odds against Sir Hugo when he won the Derby in 1892 were 40 to 1, as was stated in Daily Racing Form of June 9.

Daily Racing Form of June 9.

J. H. O., Cincinnati, O. The English record for one mile is 1:33\(\frac{1}{2}\). It was made by the American bred horse, Caiman, ridden by Lester Reiff, the American jockey, over the straight course at Lingfield, July 13, 1900. Caiman was then a four-year-old. He was bred by P. Lorillard at Rancocas Stud in New Jersey, his sire being Locohatchee and his dam Happy Day. He was taken to England and sold to Lord William Beresford, in whose colors he ran when he made this record.
